

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is unfair and outrageous. No fair-minded, thinking person could condone such an action.

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, it is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sadly, the Republican Party contributors who run Sinclair seem to view their stations as a platform for their own agenda.

If the Republican-controlled FCC doesn't stop this, and Sinclair goes ahead with this broadcast, I will urge everyone on every internet newsgroup to boycott all companies who advertise on stations owned by Sinclair.

Chairman Powell -- should he not move to put a halt to this blatant attempt to swing a national election -- will go down in history as the biggest shill of all time.

Do the right thing. Be fair. That's not too much for a citizen to ask of its government.
